Dear Kristen Schulz:

RE: Your Access to Information Request Number ER021-2223G

Thank you for your access to information request received in this office on January 20, 2023. In accordance with section 2-28(3) of The Legislation Act, the effective date of receipt is January 23, 2023. The request is for the following:

“Please provide documentation on the impact to the province's electricity system and ratepayers due to the federal government's decision to require 100% of all passenger cars and trucks sold by 2035 to be zero emission. Please be sure to include any estimates or analysis on changes necessary to power generation needs, transmission requirements, local distribution infrastructure, household upgrades and the cost to consumers. Please also provide copies of any materials provided to the federal government related to this topic and their announcement. The time frame for this request is March 1, 2021 to present.”

This is to advise you that the record(s) you wish to access do not exist in the Ministry of Energy and Resources. For your information, this notification has been provided pursuant to clause 7(2)(e) of The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

If you would like to exercise your right to request a review of this decision, you may do so by completing a “Request for Review” form and forwarding it to the Saskatchewan Information and Privacy Commissioner within one year of this notice. Your completed form can be sent to #503 – 1801 Hamilton Street, REGINA SK S4P 4B4. This form is available at the same location which you applied for access or by contacting the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner at (306) 787-8350.

If you have any questions, please contact me by email at erprivacyandaccess@gov.sk.ca or by phone 306-510-2869.

Sincerely,

Cory Rainville
